Christmas Events—Santa plea

Mrs People has been collating dates for our Christmas events in school. An email will go out confirming these dates. We are hoping for a volunteer to offer to be Santa's helper. Please contact the school if you are available.

School Camp

P7 parents/carers are reminded that information on school camp can be found on Mr McPheeley's sway Lagganlia Information Meeting. We have various financial options, so please don't hesitate to contact the school to discuss this if required.

Book week Scotland

We have been celebrating book week Scotland, this week. There has been lots of activities including live webinars from authors and illustrators like Alex Scheffler, Scots language books and our house captains led an assembly about famous authors who lived in Edinburgh. Also there was our popular masked reader. Children had to work out which member of staff was caught reading their favourite book with a Scottish theme. Can you solve this from the pictures below?

P1's Book Week winner was 'The Eyebrows of Doom' by Steve Smallman. They spent this week reading different books, learning about how we can share our opinions, describe the story, and complete a book review.
