

Primary 7 Home Learning Week Commencing 12/1/26

Spelling

This week's spelling pattern is the 'able' suffix.

Option 1 word list	Option 2 word list	Option 3 word list
accountable	advisable	accomplishable
adaptable	avoidable	changeable
adorable	enviable	decipherable
capable	noticeable	extinguishable
comparable	probable	inexcusable
disposable	reliable	manageable
enable	sociable	replaceable
portable	vegetable	respectable

Maths and Numeracy

This week in numeracy we will be practicing becoming more confident in recalling times tables. Choose an option from the activities below to complete for home learning.

Option 1	Option 2	Option 3
Practice fluency in times tables 1 - 5 up to multiplying by ten.	Practice fluency in times tables 1 - 10 up to multiplying by twelve.	Practice fluency in times tables 1 - 15 up to multiplying by twelve.

Learning Across the Curriculum

In the lead up to Burns Night this month, we will be looking at Scots language and focusing on performance poetry in particular. We have been exploring rhyme schemes and finding patterns.

At home I'd like you to:

- List any Scots words you know already and their meanings.
- Write a short description of what an ABAB rhyme scheme would look like.
