

Scottish Famous Inventors and Writer Challenges

- Home Learning Grid

Pick a Scottish Famous Inventors and Writer challenge. You can do 1-2 challenges a week until February Break, it is up to you.

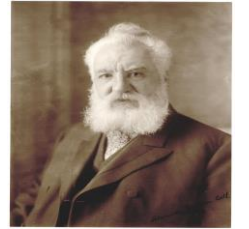

Find a poem written by Robert Burns and draw a picture about it, example- 'A Red Red Rose' you could draw a rose.

Find out five interesting facts about Robert Burns.

Can you be the next great inventor in Scotland like Alexander Bell? Can you design a phone for the future? Remember to draw and label your design.

Find out five interesting facts about John Logie Baird the inventor of the Television.

Can you create a new invention? Draw it, label it and tell us what it can do for the world and others around you.

Which invention - Television or Phone has been the most useful to the world today? Can you give your opinion and reason for your answer.